Chair's Report To the Members of the Kenora-Rainy River Districts Child and Family Services June 2023

A great deal of focus for the Board this year has been preparing for upcoming change. Bill Leonard will be retiring in January 2024 after 28 years at KRRCFS; 14 years as the Executive Director. We are incredibly grateful for Bill's years of commitment and dedication to the Agency. He has been steadfast in prioritizing the children and families of the Districts, and we wish him all of the best in retirement. The Recruitment Committee hired Legacy Bowes to lead the recruitment of an Executive Director.

After months of meeting, interviewing and discussing the priorities of KRRCFS, we are happy to welcome Alicia Rogerson as the incoming Executive Director effective October 2023. Alicia brings knowledge of both Child Welfare and Clinical Services and a breadth of experience from the Family and Children Services of Frontenac, Lennox and Addington. Her dedication to provide quality service to children and families while embodying the values, mission, and vision of KRRCFS makes her a natural fit with the Agency.

Ongoing staffing challenges has increased workload on staff covering within their communities as well as travelling to cover in other communities. We acknowledge the efforts of all staff who have gone above and beyond to ensure quality service is available to the families served. We also wish to acknowledge the efforts of the Human Resources department to utilize resources strategically and creatively to fill the void. The teamwork and comradery shown across the agency is commendable.

The Agency once again closed out the year in a surplus thanks to the skillful tactics and maneuvering of Bill Leonard and Jason Siwak. Your relentless efforts to demonstrate fiscal accountability is greatly appreciated.

The Board of Directors continued to improve their proficiency as a governing Board. The Quality Assurance Committee created and deployed surveys to collect data on efficiency and effectiveness, as well as performance. Both agency and Board of Directors continue to work within their service plans. Despite the obstacles of funding deficits, our agency continues to offer quality service to the families of our vast geographical area.

On behalf of the KRRCFS Board of Directors, I thank the staff, management and Executive Director for all of your efforts throughout the year. The resilience you have shown in adapting and adjusting to a "new normal" while still maintaining service excellence is admirable.

Thank you to our Board of Directors. Your commitment to our Board is something to be proud of. At this time, I also want to thank outgoing Board members, Kathy McConnachie (7 years) and Syrena Lalonde (10 years) for their dedication to the KRRCFS Board. We are incredibly grateful for the time, effort and energy that they have committed to the Agency.

Respectfully,

Ahnika Bruetsch, Board Chair

Report to the General Membership Kenora-Rainy River Child and Family Services June 23, 2023

Last Fall we were still struggling with the effects of the Pandemic which again hit a zenith in January particularly impacting our young people and staff within our group home program. Since then we began to see a gradual decrease, and an eventual end, to what has been a difficult experience over the past three years. The Pandemic has impacted many areas of the agency that we continue to struggle to recover from, particularly our ongoing battle with recruiting and retention of staff. The past three years has radically shifted the very definition of work and what it means to different people. The simple matter of recruiting staff has changed as the calculation of work/personal time has become more complicated. Still, as of this writing, we have been successful in bringing Red Lake and Dryden to full staffing, but now our attention has been directed at Fort Frances as we were notified of two sudden vacancies.

Despite the many challenges over the past year we were able to end the year with a balanced budget in our child welfare programming. This was in no small part due to the Balanced Budget Fund, which is a pool of money we were able to save as a result of surpluses in previous years. These funds will not be available to us in the current fiscal year which threatens to be a fiscally fragile one. We have had a number of meetings to look at the numbers. Of note is the cost of returning to regular staffing as we recover from the pandemic, as well as the significant costs of caring for a number of especially high needs children. On its face it would appear that we would have little leeway in the cost of staff or providing the necessary care for children, so it begs the question of how we manage the costs without negatively affecting staff or the care of the children. The answer may be in restructuring the way we staff our child welfare services and we will be looking more closely at this in the coming months.

Our Clinical and Community Programs also went through a staffing crisis this past year. As of this writing they are at full compliment and it appears that we will be able to achieve the goal of having no waiting list for our clinical services in the Rainy River district. These programs also ended the year with a balanced budget.

Last summer we negotiated a new Collective Agreement with our union local. Negotiations were hampered by the Government's imposition of Bill 124 which restricted pay raises to no more than 1% over salary and benefits. Although we achieved a final agreement which was ratified by the Board, we did include an Article that would allow the union to reopen the agreement to have further negotiations on salary and benefits should the Government's Bill 124 be repealed. In fact, Bill 124 was found to be unconstitutional last winter. As a result, we went back to the table in March 2023 and came to a final settlement over salaries and benefits.

The Ministry has also introduced sweeping reforms affecting our foster care/residential programs that include new regulations on training and oversight. The expectation is that all agencies be compliant with the new regulations by July 1, 2023. I have expressed to the Ministry on numerous occasions that we may not be ready. We are meeting some resistance with our kin foster homes regarding the degree of training they are expected to undergo. Just this week I received a bill from a foster parent requesting payment of lost wages as a result of attending training.

One of our major cost drivers over the past few years has been defending against many of the historical lawsuits that have been filed against us. Because we were having difficulty finding who our insurers were back in the 70's and 80's, we were forced to absorb these costs. The Ministry turned a blind eye to requests for assistance. Fortunately, we hired a legal firm who specializes in insurance coverage and they were not only able to obtain insurance coverage of our files, but also to recoup the hundreds of thousands of dollars we spent over the years defending these matters. Recently, we received a claim that does not appear to have coverage, but our lawyers are confident that they can get the insurance company on board.

Respectfully,

William Leonard, BA, BSW, MSW (Clinical), RSW

Dear Mr. Leonard,

The Ontario Association of Children's Aid Societies (OACAS) extends warm greetings to you, your Board of Directors, and your staff as you convene your 2023 Annual General Meeting.

As the pandemic officially came to an end this year and agencies continue to innovate their service delivery, we are inspired to see how Kenora-Rainy River Districts Child and Family Services continues to provide excellent services to your local community. OACAS recognizes and applauds the leadership, courage, and perseverance of your staff and board over the past year.

As we enter the process of developing a new strategic plan for OACAS and continuing the work of child welfare redesign, we recognize more than ever the need for strong partnerships and collaborative efforts across agencies and sectors, and within communities to achieve our goals. OACAS honours, recognizes, and appreciates the diverse achievements of your staff and board members at Kenora–Rainy River Districts Child and Family Services on many provincial committees and projects. OACAS is proud to support your agency as you serve the children, youth, and families in your community.

Thank you, Bill, for 28 years of service at Kenora-Rainy River Districts Child and Family Services with 14 of those years as Executive Director, and congratulations on your upcoming retirement in January 2024. We are incredibly grateful for your years of commitment and dedication to the Agency and for being steadfast in prioritizing the children and families of the Kenora Rainy River districts.

Your membership with OACAS continues to be highly valued. Our work is not possible without our members' ongoing participation and contributions. In turn, we strive to provide all members with benefits that support their day-to-day operations, including in the areas of government relations; communication and advocacy; diversity, equity, and inclusion and reconciliation work; service and operational excellence; education and training.
